ORANGE AT... REDLANDS LANDS On 10 years' time

20 ACRES OF THE finest orange land within 1 mile of the two railroad depots at Redlands for $300 per acre, including the water piped to the highest corner. Only $300 cash down and the balance can run for ten (10) years at 6% per cent. interest; 5 acres or 10 acres of it will be sold at the same price and terms.

1 TWO-STORY HOUSE and 4½ acres of Washington Naval oranges on the finest residence street in Redlands. Price only $6000; one-third cash down, balance in 1, 2 and 3 years at 6% per cent. interest.

10 ACRES only two blocks from the Redlands postoffice; all in fine orange trees 6 years old. If sold immediately only $10,000; this property is worth nearly double the amount to sell as city lots at present prices.

10, 20, 40 or 80 ACRES on Mentone Highlands adjoining the famous Mentone Nurseries where the lemon buds have grown 8 feet last season, and orange buds 6 feet without being fertilized; where the severe frosts of this winter have not injured a single tree; where the settlers have pure mountain water to drink free of charge; where you can see nearly every town in the valley, and all trains running into Mentone on all the railroads from your own door; where people go from 100 miles distant to buy 1-year-old prune trees for 20 cents each by the 1000, and peaches and apricots at 15 cents each; where the 1-year-old lemon trees (budded) sell at $1.50 each and orange trees at $1.00 each by the 1000; where there is only about 200 acres of this choice land now unsold and can be bought at $300 per acre. Terms, one-third cash, balance on or before 5 years at 8 per cent interest. 5, 10 and 20-acre tracts at Mentone, nearer town, and fully as good for oranges and other fruits, but not suitable for nursery stock, at $200 per acre; only 10 per cent cash and balance on 5 years' time.

The danger of war with Chile is past.
East Whittier lands are selling fast;
Secure your ten acre it is too late,
Or buy by you'll bemoan your fate.

BUT, wiping the tears from your eyes when your chances are all gone, will do no good, and the wise man who brought in time will have little sympathy for you then. So avoid such a contingency, come to East Whittier; buy while good chances are to be had. A great many acres will be set out in trees on the tract this season, and improvements are going merrily on. We are offering the lands very cheap now on the start; they will be higher soon. Such lands at Redlands or Riverside are bringing $400 to $600 per acre, simply because they have a start, though it is pretty hot there in the summer time. But at East Whittier you can get the sea breeze every day; no need to go to the beach to keep cool, but if you want to take a dip you can drive over to Long Beach in less than two hours. There are few such locations in Southern California.

So come along quick and you can take your pick
In the choicest lot of land in all the country side.
Dr. Jessup with his gig, or Reed with his horse Nig,
Will show you the tract and give you a free ride.

You can come to Santa Fe Springs at 8:30 on the Santa Fe, and get back to Los Angeles at 1:20. Drop a line to Dr. JESSUP, at Whittier, a day or two ahead and he will meet you at the train. Write him for full particulars, or to

THE CITY COUNCIL.

Interesting Session of the Municipal Legislators.

Mr. McLennan Replies to the Mayor's Veto Message.

He Accuses His Honor of Misrepresenting Various Facts.

The Park Boulevard Matter Discussed—Street Work Ordered—Reports of Officers—General Routine Business.

The City Council met in regular session yesterday morning at the usual time and place, every member present, and after the usual preliminaries had been disposed of the following routine business was transacted:

A brief message from the Mayor, returning the ordinance "changing the names of certain streets, etc." for amendment, in accordance with the request of the member from the Ninth Ward, was read, and upon motion of Councilman Rees the vote by which the same had been adopted was reconsidered. The ordinance was then amended by the insertion of the words "New York street," in the fifth line of section 1 thereof, and upon motion of the same member the ordinance was readopted.

The Mayor's veto message with reference to the appointment of commissioners in the matter of the opening of Sixth street, which was published in THE TIMES on Saturday last, was read, and upon motion of Councilman Alford the vote by which the ordinance had been adopted was reconsidered.

MR. MCLOMILL ON THE MATTER.

The following communication was presented by John McLennan, one of the commissioners for said street, and after being read was ordered placed on file:

To the honorable Council of the City of Los Angeles—GENTLEMEN: I feel it my duty to reply to a part of Mr. Hazard's letter which refers to the appointment of myself as Commissioner for the opening of Sixth street from Maple Avenue to Peru street. (Adopted.)

An ordinance appointing commissioners for the opening of Third street between Main and San Pedro streets. (Adopted.)

An ordinance amending the existing ordinance appointing commissioners for the opening of Sixth street from Pearl street to the west line of Galpin tract. I will be as brief as possible under the circumstances. I am a citizen of the city, and have been a resident here for a long time, and have been a member of the Board of Directors of the Main Street and Agricultural Park Railway Company, authorizing an abandonment of their franchise on Figueroa street and abandoning proceedings thereon. (Adopted.)

I inclose herewith a resolution of the Board of Directors of the Main Street and Agricultural Park Railway Company, authorizing an abandonment of their franchise on Figueroa street and abandoning proceedings thereon. (Adopted.)

The Mayor particularly wishes to convey the idea to your honorable body and the people that we have drawn and are drawing salary for all the time while waiting to close up these several streets. The fact is that we have received from the time it first appointed a commission up to the present time, covering a period of about thirty-two months, only $2164, which is a sufficient answer to my inquiry.

Mr. McLennan says that "in a former attempt to open this same street a charge of $600 was made." That much is true, and as the Council approved the charge, it is evident that it thought the same just.

He says: "There were no improvements done on the street, and the amount of small pieces of property to be taken for street purposes was worth nothing." That is not true, and he ought to know it as it is a matter of record.

The facts are, that there were five buildings to be cut or moved, as well as Dr. Bryant's large house to be moved and two houses to be condemned and taken off the property, also a stable to be cut or removed. The benefits to be assessed to pay the damages and expenses had to be paid over all the property on both sides of the street from Pearl street to the western city limits, on what was then known as Ward street, covering a frontage of about 20,000 feet.

All this is recorded in the City Clerk's records, and the City Clerk can tell the Mayor comes to the true statement of facts. But this veto message is only on a part with nearly all his previous vetoes.

Does the Mayor ever come before or consult with the City Clerk in regard to what he wants to do? and does he ever try to get up any of these ordinances? No. But when an ordinance is presented for his signature, he takes eight or ten days, which is allowed him to affix his signature, in getting up a long veto message, ingeniously composed and worded, so as to endeavor to pull the wool over the eyes of the people, that they might think him their grand guardian and friend.

It seems to me after reading his message and a number that have preceded this one that Mr. Hazard was wholly and maliciously ignorant of the facts, or thinks he is grossly ignorant of the facts, or thinks he can bulldoze the Council into believing that black is white: in either case it is certainly unbecoming a gentleman occupying so high a position in the city to occupy such a position.

Most respectfully, JOHN MCLOMILL.

One of these Commissioners.

STREET MATTERS.

Upon motion of Councilman Alford the ordinance was readopted, notwithstanding the objections of the Mayor.

The City Clerk reported, presenting final ordinances for the sidewalkening of B

RECENT developments show that in New York they have an import traffic in European girls similar to that in Chinese women which flourishes on this Coast. The New York police are now working to break up the business. It requires something more than police activity to do that here, where more law is invoked to get these persons into the country than to keep them out. The law is there made the shield of crime, as it is here.

THE San Bernardino Times-Index is down on Congressman Bowers' latest scheme to ameliorate the condition of San Diego, as witness the following:

Senor Bowers has introduced a bill in Congress to compel the citizens of San Bernardino county to go to San Diego instead of Los Angeles to try cases before the United States District Court. If Bowers succeeds in his little game, he will have still more cause to injure the people of this county, as it costs twice as much for traveling expenses to go to San Diego as it does to Los Angeles, and much valuable time. Bowers made a showing of coming to this county to see what the people wanted. We would like to know what man recommended such a scheme. Bah!

THE Stockton Mail hits off a recent sad casualty in this city and the subsequent and inevitable action for damages thereto in the following breezy fashion:

In Los Angeles not long ago a cable car started up in a hurry, throwing a lady passenger, who was standing, against a door of the car. Now the woman is suing the cable company for $2,000 for a misplaced liver. She ought to get every cent of it, too. Just think of the inconvenience of having a liver floating around your system in a miscellaneous sort of way, never knowing from whence it came, or where a man asks, "How's your liver?" All you can reply is that when you last ran it down in the northeast quarter of the southwest quarter of section 15 of your district, it had developed a spot in a go-as-you-please contest with your lungs and gizzard. Anyone can see that such a condition of affairs is inconvenient and troublesome, and not less than $25,000 would be any compensation for it. The Los Angeles woman has the Mail's sympathy.

We regret to say that the Mail is all wrong in its premises. It was a kidney, not a liver, that was misplaced, and this, if anything, makes the action more binding. Some people with organs variously out of joint make enough out of the street car companies to keep their other organs all in good working order.

A GENTLEMAN who has been engaged in shipping oranges from this section for years, and who has sent forward a number of consignments this season, says he fully agrees with the article in yesterday's Times on the demoralized condition of the orange market. He urges in extenuation of the course adopted by shippers, however, that they really did not know how bad the oranges were. In former years they have shipped fruit a little damaged from wind-whipping, and have secured a small price for it, which was better than nothing. In that case, however, the fruit was palatable and healthful, although a little disfigured as to its exterior. This season much of the fruit of fair appearance is found to be damaged in juices and flavor, and there is no cause to which this can be attributed except the frosts of December. We incline to the opinion that ignorance is no excuse on the part of the shippers. They had abundant chance to taste the fruit and have a turn with the colic before they sent it away. It would rather seem that they hoped to sell the oranges on their fair appearance and pocket the proceeds before the purchasers had tasted them. In this case there is no occasion for wasting sympathy on the sufferers. Let them pay the freight and take the lesson. Meanwhile, it is best to ship no oranges at all to the markets of the West.

THE Santa Barbara Press has a well-considered article on building associations, showing the essential differences between the "national" kind and those organized on the "home" principle and conducted by responsible citizens.

"The local association is organized on a purely cooperative basis. It is almost entirely without expense. It is managed by men elected directly by the stockholders themselves. Its directors' meetings are held monthly and are open to every stockholder. Its loans are made in open competition, and every stockholder wishing to borrow has the opportunity to obtain a loan. It is absolutely safe. In the past fifty years, since the first building association was organized in Philadelphia, not one has ever failed. The nationals, on the other hand, are especially organized to operate at a distance, with the sole object of putting money into the pockets of the projectors and officers. No national association has ever matured. Some of the older Minneapolis concerns, where this scheme of enrichment originated, paid off their first series promptly, but later investigations, when they were in the hands of receivers, proved that this was done, not by money earned, but by money constantly coming in from fresh dupes.

These associations are based upon an essentially wrong financial principle and it is no more possible for them to succeed, than it was for the notorious Woman's Bank in Boston, some ten years ago, which paid 5 per cent. interest per month on deposits. It is a financial impossibility for them to keep their promises made to stockholders. The public should carefully discriminate between the two kinds of building associations.

ACCORDING to statements of San Francisco papers the second-class passenger rate from the Missouri River to San Francisco is $5. Of this sum the railroads get only $14.80 in cash from a large share of this class of business. The remainder, $20.70, goes for commissions for securing the business. The Atchison Company wanted to abolish the commissions and make the rates $14.80, giving the public the benefit of the low rates, and so stimulating travel. But the other companies in the Transcontinental Association voted the proposition down.

THE absent-minded cashier who left out of his safe a tray of twenty-dollar gold pieces amounting to $10,000 and saved the pot through the good offices of the janitor got off too easy. The next time he tried it, with a tray containing $3600, he lost. There is a moral in this somewhere for absent-minded men, if they will only dig it out.

LETTERS TO THE TIMES.

That "Short Grass Bovine," To-wit, "The Express."

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 29.—[To the Editor of THE TIMES.] "Look Out for Jobbery!" is the editorial cry of the Evening Express. It is a good name for the paper, for it is the old "stop-theif" yell that we are so familiar with in the case of the "fence" family. The Express asserts that the contract made with the City Water Company in 1868 is valid and binding upon the city—that having been entered into previous to the adoption of the present constitution, it is beyond the control of the Legislature and the Council.

It is good to see that the Express editor has sufficient sense to perceive the danger which THE TIMES has pointed out and to act upon it before it is too late.

The contract provides that the rates for water shall not be less than they were in 1868. Then they were about four times the rates now charged by the water company. When the contract expires in 1894, the water company will be compelled to go into the water business on its own account. To buy, it must have bonds voted, and it requires two-thirds of the voters to carry a bond proposition. In the past the water company has not hesitated to take to the water business on its own account, could always secure a few votes over one-third; hence it could forever hold the city by the throat. The people want to see this power broken, and the business of supplying water is placed under the regulations of the present constitution, which authorizes the Council to fix the rates every year. I believe the public understands this matter and will not allow any short-grass bovine to obscure the real situation by having a name and belching "Jobbery." The public wants a water company under their control, and when it is there the rates can put so low that the property can be purchased at a fair rate. This is the only way out of the difficulty. Get the present monopoly under the general law, control its operations, and buy its works only when the city is ready.

THE BROKEN SAN DIEGO BANK.

The Preliminary Examination of President Collins Tomorrow.

The examination of President Collins, of the suspended San Diego bank, will commence tomorrow. So far as known to Mr. Collins, he has made no attempt to give bail, but has remained quietly at his rooms at the Brewster in charge of the sheriff, attending to his correspondence and preparing for his trial.

From a gentleman who arrived from San Diego last evening it was learned that public sentiment was turning very rapidly against Collins, and it was stated that his chances for furnishing bail are very slim. It is claimed that there is a great deal behind the failure that has so far been kept secret, but that at the preliminary hearing a showing will be made that will create a sensation. Just what the nature of these developments is not stated, but it is claimed that if the matter is gone into it will eventually stop all talk in Collins' favor, and destroy all chance of his furnishing bail, in which case he will be committed to the county jail to await trial.

On the other hand, Collins maintains a bold front, and says he will have no trouble in proving his innocence of any crime.

D. D. Dare, the vice-president of the bank, is in Europe, and when last heard from was sick at Rome. It is not believed he will return to the United States.

The following Associated Press dispatch was received last night:

SAN DIEGO, Feb. 29.—There are no new developments in the case of the suspension of the California National Bank. Attorney Gen. Hart is expected on Tuesday, when a receiver for the savings bank department of the California National Bank will be appointed. It is reported that Gen. Murray will be appointed. Mr. Collins has yet given bail. It is said he will have a preliminary examination and go before the United States grand jury.

THE NATIVE SONS.

Preparing for the Meeting of the Grand Parlor in This City.

The order of Native Sons of the Golden West now contains over 8000 members and comprises within its ranks a large majority of the active and energetic native-born Californians. Owing to the circumstance that in early days the larger portion of the population of California was located in the northern part of the State the majority of the members come from that section. At the last Grand Parlor, held in Santa Rosa, it was determined that the next Grand Parlor should be held at Los Angeles, and the members of the local organization, Ramona Parlor, are exerting themselves to give the visitors a reception worthy of the second city of California. In fact, the progressive young men who have the affair in charge are determined to outdo all previous efforts. Ramona Parlor is composed of about 100 of the best-known citizens. They are already organizing their committees and will call upon business men and, in fact, upon all who have the welfare of Los Angeles at heart, to contribute liberally, so that the northern visitors cannot but admit the enterprise and hospitality of the southern metropolis. It has been claimed by some that a proper reception would not be got up here, but Ramona Parlor is confident that there will be no difficulty in raising the required funds. Its own members have already contributed something in the neighborhood of $1000.

SWELL CHINESE WEDDING.

The Ceremony Finally Concluded Last Evening—Reception Today.

The swell Chinese wedding that was begun in San Francisco about a week ago was concluded until a late hour last night in this city. The legal knot was tied by Justice Stanton yesterday afternoon, but the bride, who is said to have the smallest foot of any woman on the coast, wore a heavy veil and her husband did not see her face until 10 o'clock last night; in fact, that was the first time he ever saw her during his life, so soon as the ceremony was concluded, a few minutes before 10 o'clock last night, the veil was taken from the bride's face, and she and her husband were left alone for the first time in their lives.

If any rival or opponent of THE TIMES, journalistic or otherwise, dares to challenge the production of inside facts, touching the past or present attitude of Los Angeles newspapers toward the water and other local corporations, in the matter of "jobs," "boodle," or illegitimate demands of whatever kind, let that rival or opponent speak up in manly fashion! THE TIMES has reason to believe who will suffer by the inquisition, and it is ready for the contest.

THE COURTS.

The Case of Russell vs. the Cable Company.

The Demurrs to the Complaint Overruled by Judge Wade.

Lottery Dealer Fined in the United States District Court.

Habeas Corpus Proceedings Before Judge Smith—Miguel Samouset Given More Time—General News—Court Calendar.

Judge Wade rendered his decision overruling the demurrs to the complaint in the case of Edward Russell vs. Pacific Railway Company et al., in accordance with the following opinion, yesterday morning:

There are several demurrs submitted in this case, which, with the exception, were upon the ground that the complainant does not state facts sufficient to constitute a cause of action. The complaint, however, sets up certain facts to constitute a cause of action against each of the defendants, and for this reason, so far as they are based upon that ground, they are overruled.

The motion for a new trial of the cause of Clemente Cruz de Coronel vs. Lewis W. Webb et al. was denied by Judge Wade yesterday, but a stay of execution for fifteen days was granted on motion of plaintiff.

In the case of the German Savings and Loan Society vs. John Roberts et al. Judge Wade yesterday rendered his decision ordering findings and judgment for the defendant on his cross-complaint.

Findings and judgment were ordered for the plaintiff in the case of Maggie Phelan et al. vs. Ed Smith, an action for rent, etc., by Judge Wade yesterday.

Judge Wade ordered yesterday that the case of the People, etc., vs. El Hammond et al. be transferred to Court Commissioner C. W. Pendleton, who was directed to take an accounting and show the condition of the defendants' official accounts with the company.

Judge Van Dyke yesterday granted the plaintiff's motion for judgment on the pleadings in the case of J. A. Adams vs. H. J. Rudisill, an action on a note.

In Department Five yesterday afternoon Judge Shaw heard the argument in the case of Adelaide d'Artois vs. W. L. Webb et al., and, when the matter was submitted, took it under advisement.

Judge Shaw yesterday ordered judgment as prayed for, by default, in the following cases: Hannah A. Baldwin vs. J. C. Kofoed et al., $900, foreclosure; and G. S. Walker vs. J. H. Bryant et al., $1200, foreclosure.

New Suits.

Among the documents filed with the County Clerk yesterday were the preliminary papers in the following new cases:

Farmers' and Merchants' Bank vs. Francis H. Jones et al. suit to recover $1978, alleged to be due on a note assigned to plaintiff by E. C. Webster.

B. Verch vs. Charles McDowell, suit to recover a contract for the purchase of the W. ½ of the N.W. ¼ of S.E. ¼ of section 1, T. 1 S., R. 10 W. P. B. M., which had been assigned to plaintiff by G. W. Sells.

YOUTHFUL BURGLARS.

A Gang of Juvenile Thieves on Boyle Heights.

About a year ago four or five young boys entered a Mr. Fairfield's residence on Boyle Heights and succeeded in getting away with a shotgun, five gold bracelets and a lot of jewelry. The officers and detectives spent some time on the case, but could do nothing and gave up. A few weeks ago a young boy named Willie Van Steinberg, who is a brother of the little lame flower girl, was sent to the Whittier Reform School, and after he had been there a few days he confessed that he and four or five other boys committed the Fairfield robbery. He told the officers that they would find the stolen property in the possession of one of the gang named Charley Dillon, and last evening Con. Officer Morris visited Charley Dillon's home on Boyle Heights, and searched the premises. He found the property and placed the youngster under arrest.

The master was presented by R. R. Tanner, Esq., for the defendant and Assistant District Attorney McComas for the prosecution, and at the close of their argument was by the Court taken under advisement until Thursday next.

THE ROTH LOTTERY CASE.

In the United States District Court yesterday morning Max Roth, who was convicted on Saturday last of having violated the anti-lottery law, appeared before Judge Ross, and by his counsel moved the Court in arrest of judgment on the usual statutory grounds, which motion, however, was denied. The defendant's counsel made a statement in mitigation of his client's sentence, but the Court sentenced the defendant to pay a fine of $200, which was done.

Court Notes.

Upon motion of the defendant's counsel Judge Ross reset the trial of the case against Thaddeus J. Barnes, ex-postmaster at Monrovia, for April 28 next, yesterday morning.

In Department One yesterday morning High J. Crawford, Esq., withdrew from the case against Mariano Tapia charged with rape, and C. C. Stephens, Esq., having been substituted as counsel for defendant, the Court, upon his motion, continued the passing of sentence upon defendant until Thursday next.

Frank Rooney, a native of Iowa, 18 years of age, was duly adjudged insane by Judge Smith yesterday morning and committed to the State asylum for the insane at Stockton in accordance with the recommendation of Drs. Colburn and Moore, the examining physicians.

The defendant in the case against Miguel Samouset, recently convicted by a jury of the seduction of Jeanne Etietche, under promise of marriage, was allowed ten days further time by Judge Smith yesterday in which to draft his bill of exceptions on motion for new trial.

William Carter and John Collins, two subjects of Great Britain, were duly admitted to citizenship by the United States yesterday by Judge Smith upon producing the necessary proofs of residence here and taking the requisite oaths of renunciation and allegiance. Judge Van Dyke performed a like service for Frank Nelson, a Swede.

A BAL FOUDRE.

"A wondrous sight it was—
This glittering throng, this gathering
Of men and women."

[From Ye Old Carnivale.]

The cotillion last evening at Turnverein Hall was a fitting finale of the gay winter season of '92. It was a bal poudre and the quaint, sixteenth century costumes of the ladies, the wigs, the powdered hair, the charming decorations, the exquisite music, the shimmer of colored lights and the grace of the dancers combined to make the affair the event of the season. The hall seemed transformed into an abode for the fairies, with festoons of pale pink and blue bunting, interspersed with garlands of sunlax, fluttering from the ceiling and gallery. The same delicate tints prevailed everywhere. Bands of hunting concealed every bit of the woodwork, and palm leaves and ferns were outlined against it with charming effect. Rows of Japanese lanterns extended around the hall and hung on ribbons of bunting from the ceiling.

It was a leap year affair, and the ger- man was led by Miss Childs, who was radiant in a beautiful gown of white faille richly embroidered with seed pearls in clusters. Satin bows joined the short sleeves at the shoulders and fluttering ends of ribbons fell down the back of the bodice the length of the train. A necklace of pearls, long white gloves, a fan of white ostrich feathers and a pompon in her powdered hair, which was dressed a la pompadour, gave the finishing touch to a lovely costume. The shrill note from her silver whistle summoned the dancers to the floor shortly after 9 o'clock, and the first figure danced was the balloon figure—the favors being pretty red and yellow—balloons—which floated over the heads of the dancers. The next was the flag figure, which was extremely pretty, the gas being lowered and colored lights being thrown upon the dancers from the gallery. The moving throng of beautiful women in picturesque gowns, with their partners in evening dress and snowy wigs, the waving flags, the ever-changing lights now pale to set green now flashing to a glowing crimson was enchanting enough to turn the soberest head. As the strains of music died away the soft clapping of hundreds of hands expressed the satisfaction of the dancers.

The gowns of the ladies were for the most part white.

Among the prominent guests present were Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Francis (née Dominguez). The bride looked charming in a gown of soft, cream-tinted crépe, in train. The V-shaped bodice was outlined with a full ruching of chiffon, and decorated with jeweled passementerie. Diamonds flashed from neck, wrists and coiffure.

The following were noticed in the throng: Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Banning, Mr. and Mrs. Telfair Creighton, Hon. and Mrs. Cornelius Cole, Mrs. O. W. Childs, Mr. and Mrs. F. Conroy, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ellis, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Francis, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Freeman, Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Garness, Mr. and Mrs. E. Gorham, Mr. and Mrs. George Gephard, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. PASADENA.

Facts Pertaining to Citrus Fair Contributions.

Notes and Comment on Timely Topics of Interest.

The Great National Game Will Soon be Here.

Monday's Budget of Local News—Personal Notes of Interest—Fairs, Suppers and Lectures—A Batch of Brevities.

(Branch office, No. 98 East Colorado street, where news, advertisements and orders for THE TIMES are received.)

The State citrus fair opens at Hazard's Pavilion, Los Angeles, tomorrow night. Pasadena, of course, will have an exhibit, and it will be a creditable one, with a prominent place in the center of the pavilion. Hundreds of Pasadenaans will visit the fair, but less than half a hundred of 6000 residents of this supposedly progressive and liberal community will have the satisfaction of knowing, as they gaze upon the home exhibit, that they have been generous enough, or public-spirited enough, to contribute as much as a single dollar toward its material or preparation, or done a single iota of work toward getting it into proper shape.

Some days ago a committee of five citizens was appointed to take charge of the affair. Investigation proved that $200 would be needed to purchase the requisite amount of fruit and defray the other necessary expenses. The committee, of course, will be a creditable one, with a prominent place in the center of the pavilion. Hundreds of Pasadenaans will visit the fair, but less than half a hundred of 6000 residents of this supposedly progressive and liberal community will have the satisfaction of knowing, as they gaze upon the home exhibit, that they have been generous enough, or public-spirited enough, to contribute as much as a single dollar toward its material or preparation, or done a single iota of work toward getting it into proper shape.

It is the same old story. Everybody, of course, manifests a deep interest in the success of the affair, but when it comes down to a matter of cash contributions, the members who are up to their ears in avarice, and they are the same people who contribute to every and all public undertakings, while the rest take in the show, eager and ready to criticize any weak point that may appear. For three days past the members of the committee have been working all day and well into the night at the pavilion, preparing for the exhibit. It has been hard manual labor, with no pay, and little encouragement. Thanks, however, to their efforts, Pasadena will make a show, and with their favor, able to show that of any other locality represented, and that whatever deficiency there may be in the expense account fund will be promptly provided for, for the same men who have already contributed $10 or $5 or more will contribute another $10 or $5 or more to help fill up the deficit.

It is a pity that so many citizens who really have the interests of the town at heart are afflicted with what might probably best be termed lethargy. They need shaking up, when they see that the money is spent, where the expenditure of a few hundred dollars insures a vast amount of advertising, and when they are called upon to contribute a dollar or two to aid in the good cause, it would be well for them to stop the gobble-goo which is not worth to be called upon, and "solicited" half a dozen times and then give nothing.

At least $75 more is needed to carry the exhibit through. With a proper appreciation of the subject it can reasonably be expected that the amount of this additional sum will be left at the Pasadena Fair today. Aside from all philanthropic motives, and considered purely in the light of an investment, it will be the best possible way for property owners to place a few dollars.

NOTES AND COMMENT.

At this time, when a public hospital seems to be a possibility, it may not be out of place to call attention to the fact that the opposition in work and teaching of the science of hygiene, which is a practical application of the most abstruse inquiry into the conditions of everyday life, making science and art contributory to the health and welfare, is not only the best guarantee of an early convalescence. In this land of sun and health-giving atmosphere one is too apt to forget the normal physiological actions which are directly or indirectly the cause of almost every form of disease.

This is not true of the individual, but the surroundings that feed him eat, the water he drinks, the air he breathes. The study of hygiene, or preventative medicine, therefore includes, besides microscopic research, questions of drainage and sewerage and water supply, of heating, lighting and ventilation, of the care of the body and even the furnishing of houses, of food and drink, and whatever else affects the health of the individual. Invalids frequently come here, apparently possessed of the idea that better climate will not only cure them, or whatever physical illness they have, but will permit them to disregard all the ordinary rules and regulations which are essential to health and vigor. This is illustrated here in so many different ways. The weather condition is used, but the hint is given to those who have the interests of the proposed hospital at heart to lay down a code of iron-clad rules and regulations which will prohibit the inmates taking any undue liberties with the ultimate, such as parading the streets in the night, air baths, chimney days in rooms not heated, simple because they happen to be in Southern California.

The spots on the sun are catching it for almost everything that is wrong with him, how it is all attributed to them, and it will be next in order for the defeated candidates in the municipal elections to blame their failure on the same spots.

An afternoon of sunshine makes one forget a morning of fog.

Merchants and business men in all lines of trade report a satisfactory state of affairs, and the hotel proprietors and liverymen are not behindhand in the procession.

The baseball season is a "go," and, as things look now, Pasadenaans will be privileged to a rich abundance of the great national game during the coming summer. Frank Decker has obtained the consent of the Athletic Association to lay out a diamond on the grounds used by them for outdoor sports, on South Raymond avenue. It is to be a diamond nine, and will be in the west corner of the grounds, adjoining Fair Oaks avenue. The grand stand will be moved to the north side of the grounds, and the main entrance will be from Fair Oaks avenue. Work will begin at once, and, as a second nine is in the process of organization, it will not be long before some thrilling matches will take place.

SAN BERNARDINO.

(Branch office at Stewart Hotel newsstand, where news, advertisements and orders for THE TIMES are received.)

The practices of some clergymen are such as to place them individually in bad repute and the cause of Christianity in most unfavorable light before men. The actions not long since of Rev. Ben Ollie of the Episcopal Church of this city, in calling at the home of a bereaved family with a bill for $200 for services the next morning after officiating at a funeral, is most reprehensible. Notwithstanding the sorrowing state of the family the sum was very properly refused. The reverend gentleman was so enraged by this that he took occasion two Sundays ago to make indirect reference to it from the pulpit. He had referred to the deceased family as "the poor" and the bereaved as "the wealthy."

Mr. Pratt, of the Sloane House, left Sunday night for a two weeks' trip to Seattle.

J. H. Hyatt has purchased the boarding-house business over the postoffice of Mrs. Valentine and Mrs. Pettit and will take today.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Byrne have become residents of this city.

The international petition for the prohibition of all liquor traffic throughout the world has now gathered a large number of signatures during the fair.

The board of directors of the Twenty-eighth District Agricultural Association expects to have all matters pertaining to the fair put in final shape next Saturday, when a meeting will be held at the once of the canary to audit bills and pay premiums.

BAUMONT.

Baumont was represented at the District Fair at Colton. T. J. Meilen of this place made a fine display, the quality of which may best be determined by an examination of the card which he had made. He was given first place in dried apricots, dried peaches, first on English walnuts, second on dried figs, third on dried peeled peaches and third on dried unpeeled peaches. This is certainly not a bad showing for one exhibitor.

Political Schemers Already Maneuvering for the "Sack."

The Great Hollister Ranches to be Subdivided—Large Number of Visitors at the Los Angeles Citrus Fair—General News Notes.

(Branch office, No. 713 State street, where news, advertisements and orders for THE TIMES are received.)

Many are the words of gratitude uttered to the editor of THE TIMES for the publication in the Sunday edition of Bob Ingerson's lecture on Abraham Lincoln. A literary man of this city pronounced it the greatest, most sublime and deserved eulogy ever uttered by human lips.

POLITICAL.

A secret meeting was held last evening by political schemers, and their plans were discussed, each one running for office was asked over and it was finally agreed that two members be appointed to head a private club, which was to be called the "Sack." One of the schemers said that the office of Marshal would be desperately contested, and that out of so many candidates a good "sack" could be raised.

THE HOLLISTER RANCHES.

In an interview with W. C. Fennell, he estimates that in all probabilities their immense ranches of 50,000 acres will be cut up into small tracts and sold on the market. The connection between the county and the town houses upon the track and could not be frightened off. The engine struck them both and killed them.

Articles of incorporation were filed with the County Clerk yesterday by the Pasadena Hospital Association, formed for the purpose of establishing, maintaining and carrying on a hospital for the sick at Pasadena. Its board of directors consists of James E. Scoville, P. M. Green, A. R. Metcalfe, E. H. Hull, T. S. C. Lowe, G. F. Kernaghan and E. F. Hurblit, all of Pasadena.

Mmes. Beaman and Hendee, of No. 323 South Spring street, have a piece of French embroidery 150 years old, 150 m. in diameter, patterned in India, small, no fine in texture that the whole width can be drawn through a finger ring. It is for sale, and is a bargain for anyone making a collection. Their Spanish drawn work is like a cobweb and their needlework embroidery is the best in the city. The novelties shown in decorative needlework are exquisite in design and color. They are also sole agents for the Ferguson Roman gold for china decorating.

ARTICLES OF INVENTORY.

The resolutions were referred to the Committee on Grievances for further action. It is the intention of the ladies to expel their unworthy member, who will, however, be given an opportunity to answer the charges preferred against her, in accordance with the constitution.

Mrs. Wilder was not present at the meeting yesterday, but, hoping probably to forestall the event of expulsion, "took time by the forelock," as it were, and sent a written resignation as a member of the Annex.

Resolved, that a copy of these resolutions be sent to Commissioner Rose, and we assure him that our sentiments are herein fully expressed; that we cordially thank him for the honor he intended to confer upon us, and we trust he will see his way clear to such immediate action as will carry effect his original intentions in this matter.

Ladies, we have been robbed, deceived and cheated out of our rights by a member of our organization. We have passed before all the honors we could hope for, and I appeal to you that we do not submit tamely to this abuse, that we do not accept her resignation, but expel her. [Applause.] Gentlemen prominent in business circles know that the Annex has an excellent record, and we trust you will support us in this matter.

Without it, Price, $1.00, for a year, including drug stores and Hair-dressing Parlors, Room 23, Schumacher Block. Put up by Madame Ulrich, Los Angeles, Cal.
